JAPANESE OFFICER INSPIRES HIS MEN

Says the Whole Civilized World is Watching the Japs.

Russians Say That a Surprise is In store For the Japanese at Mukden.

NO DEFINITE NEWS TODAY

Rome, Sept. 22.—A telegram from Tokyo says that Gen. Oyama addressed a proclamation to his army urging a supreme effort in the forthcoming battle, which he says is likely to decide the campaign. Gen. Oyama's address adds that the whole civilized world is watching the Japanese in the struggle against the Russians.

BATTLE EXPECTED SOON.
Mukden, Sept. 22.—A battle is expected hourly in the vicinity of Fushan, thirty miles east of Mukden.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 22.—The war of shells are not depressed by reports current abroad that Gen. Kuropatkin's position at Mukden is threatened. They intimate that a surprise is in store for the Japanese. A plan is being pushed here for a more extensive and comprehensive campaign in the spring.

STRICT GUARD ON LENA.

Washington, Sept. 22.—That a strict guard may be kept around the Russian ship Lena, to prevent damage being done to her by a partisan, the navy department, at the request of the commandant of the navy yard at Mare Island, has sent a detachment of 150 marines to San Francisco for this duty. The marines now guarding the Lena belong to the detail assigned for the battleship Ohio, which will be commissioned early in October. Authorization has been made for the increase of the guard from sixty to seventy-two.

ALEXIEFF BLAMED.

Berlin, Sept. 22.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Tagessblatt, apparently prompted by the Russian war department, puts the blame for Gen. Orloff's failure to hold the Vental coal mines equally on Viceroy Alexieff and Gen. Orloff.

The correspondent says:
"Alexieff detained Orloff on trivial pretexts, so that he reached the mines at noon on Sept. 1, wholly unprepared for the situation. Gen. Samsonoff transmitted to him Gen. Kuropatkin's strict order to hold the mines at all cost, but when Orloff heard the commanding in the direction of Syktyukov he marched toward that place, leaving Samsonoff alone to hold the mines. Gen. Kuratki fell upon the left flank half an hour afterward. Orloff was not possessed of a single cavalryman, and was completely surprised. His troops, composed mainly of reservists who had been long out of the service, were uncontrollable and broke, going in the direction of Vental instead of back to the mines. Gen. Kuropatkin personally led the First Siberian corps to the support of the hard-pressed Samsonoff."

LITTLE DEFINITE INFORMATION.

London, Sept. 22.—Whatever may be happening in the far east, there is little definite information from any quarter. The armies in the vicinity of Mukden appear to be limiting their activities at present to feeling the positions of their adversaries. It is supposed to be the plans of the Japanese to possess themselves of the passes of the Da Mountain Range before making a direct movement on Mukden. Strategic and political considerations seem to make it essential that Gen. Kuropatkin make a stand there and prevent the town from being made the winter headquarters of the Japanese, while the lack of adequate facilities elsewhere for the housing of troops during a rigorous Manchurian winter make it necessary that the Japanese bend all their energies to the capture of that town.

During the scarcity of news from Mukden attention is again reverted to Port Arthur. According to the Morning Post's Japanese informants two of "Kuropatkin's forts" the Japanese are said to have occupied in the vicinity of Shushiyang are Nantai and Changkai-tun, and their value to the besiegers consist in the former being close to the Antsushan forts and the latter to the Dragon Hill forts, the object of the Japanese.

WAS IT MALICIOUS OR ACCIDENTAL?

A Supporter of Dr. Hunter Poisoned.

He Becomes Wild From Pain and the Doctors Fail to Relieve Him.

IT CAUSES MUCH EXCITEMENT

Somerset, Ky., Sept. 22.—The Hon. S. G. Smith, county judge of Clinton county, and a republican committeeman from that county in attendance with others of the republican state central committee who are supervising the count here in the congressional contest between Dr. W. H. Hunter and the Hon. D. C. Edwards, is believed to be dying from a powerful drug given him by some unknown person this morning.

He is almost wild with pain, and the doctors have been unable to relieve him. Judge Smith is a warm supporter of Dr. Hunter, and whether the poisoning was malicious or accidental has not been determined. The excitement is at fever heat.

BOUNDARY LINE

TO BE THE SCENE OF PRIZE
FIGHTING HEREAFTER.

New York, September 22.—A scheme is on foot by which glove contests will be given this fall in Canada—not in Canada, either, but on the line between that country and the United States.

The scheme is to have the "line-house" liquor system extended into prize fighting.

The "line-house" is a liquor store that pays no license because the international boundary runs through the center of the house, and when the United States inspectors come to seize the liquors it is moved to the Canadian side, to be moved back when the Canadian officers come.

The idea is to have a fight in October, the ring being pitched near Roscoe's Point, on the Canadian side, and the spectators' seats being on the United States side. It is stated that the seats are being actually constructed.

The Dominion police, under Colonel Shearwood, superintendent, are going to look into the matter, the Dominion law being very severe on all attending prize fights, and makes the penalty from three to twelve months' imprisonment with hard labor.

Tommy Ryan and Jack O'Brien are supposed to be the principals in the proposed fight.

Some men can't even tell the truth without lying about it.
Once being to thrust a powerful wedge in the gap between the eastern and western fortifications through which the railroad passes to Port Arthur from the north. Antsushan overlooks this gap and though the Japanese failed to penetrate it sufficiently in the assault of three weeks ago, the persistence with which they returned to the charge is held to prove that the taking of the gap is as essential to the Japanese plan of campaign as it was a decade ago.

SHOWED THEM ATTENTION.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 22.—A dispatch from Kadooga says that an entertainment in honor of Japanese officers detained as prisoners of war, society leaders vied with each other, showing them every attention.

COAL FAMINE FEARED.

Kinchon, Sept. 22.—The British collier Foxton Hall transferred the cargo of Cardiff coal to the German steamer Erika, which the local authorities will not allow to leave until given assurance that no attempt will be made to enter Port Arthur. It is thought there is a coal famine at Port Arthur.

PORT ARTHUR CASUALTIES.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 22.—A report received today states that since September 2 the Russian casualties at Port Arthur are: fourteen officers killed, twenty-three wounded, three hundred and eighty men killed, seven hundred and fifty wounded. Forty-five Russian cannon were ruined by Japanese fire.

SEEKING THE HIRED MAN'S JOB.

ANOTHER VERSION

John Austin Alleged to Have Been Assaulted at Cairo.

Supposed to Have Been Pul On a Cotton Belt Train at Bird's Point.

A Vicksburg, Miss., special to today's Memphis Commercial-Appel says:
"Vicksburg, Miss., Sept. 22.—City Jail-er J. T. Everts, of Paducah, Ky., reached here this evening to make inquiries concerning John Austin, a member of the police staff of the Kentucky town, who has been in the hospital here several days suffering from the effects of a sand-bag attack. Austin turned up at a local drug store last Friday with his head in a terrible condition, and unable to give any clear account of himself, or how he came here. He was sent to the hospital and examined when it was found that there was an internal depression of brain, with no external bruises apparent. He lay in a manila state until yesterday after an operation, when reason returned. He then told in broken sentences how he had been sand-bagged at Cairo, where he had gone to meet his wife, who was returning home from Shawneetown. There he was met and sand-bagged by unknown parties and after that his memory was blank. Everts states that Austin was put on a Cotton Belt train at Bird's Point, Mo., with a ticket to Vicksburg, and the supposition is that he reached here by way of Shreveport, or Monroe. The officer is confident that the assaults of Austin can be located when the time comes. At present the patient is in a precarious condition and his recovery is exceedingly doubtful. Austin is well known in Paducah, where he belongs to a number of orders, and has a wife and several children."

GOT A TIP

OF BREATHITT GOT AWAY.

ENGINEER KILLED BY A MAIL CRANE

William S. Edwards Meets With a Sad Fate.

Forgot About the Change of Engines and Leaned Out Too Far Watching a Hot Box.

HE FORMERLY LIVED HERE

William S. Edwards, one of the most popular and well known engineers on the I. C. was killed at Templeton, a small station between Newbern and Trimble, Tenn., on the Tennessee division of the I. C., yesterday afternoon late by being struck in the head by the mail crane at Templeton.

Engineer Edwards pulled the accommodation train between Fulton and Memphis and had been running on a small engine. Yesterday he was given a larger type of locomotive to run and while leaning out of his cab window watching a hot box he passed the mail crane which struck him in the head, breaking his jaw and skull.

He had overlooked the fact that the engine was larger and the cab protruded further out than the one he had been used to, and to this is attributed the accident. Edwards, after being struck, was taken back to Fulton, Ky., where he has been residing, and where every medical attention was given him, but he died two hours after the accident.

The deceased was well known in Paducah, having resided here the greater part of his life. He ran out of Paducah for many years and lived at Ninth and Clark streets. He moved to Fulton several years ago when he was finally transferred to the south end, but came to Paducah occasionally to see his old friends.

Engineer Edwards leaves a wife and three children and was 33 years of age. News of his death was received here with much regret and sorrow this morning. The funeral will be conducted tomorrow from the Baptist church at Fulton and several Paducah engineers will go down to attend.

The first time a young man fails in love he wonders what struck him.

It takes a spinster to converse knowingly on the art of managing a husband.

BUSY POPULISTS ALARM THE ENEMY

They are to Have Congressional Candidates.

Conventions Held in Four Districts
In Addition to the First District.

ARE MAKING GOOD HEADWAY

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 22.—The populists of Kentucky, headed by Jo A. Parker, who have for the last eight years advocated the election of a democrat, are preparing for a vigorous campaign in Kentucky. Jo A. Parker issued a call from Louisville for conventions in four congressional districts in Kentucky to nominate candidates for congress.

Of course the men who are engaged in promoting such a movement have no chance to win, but they may seriously injure the democrats.

The call is as follows:

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 1, 1904.—Dear Sir and Bro.: There will be a convention to nominate a candidate of the people's party for congress in the following districts as mentioned:

Second District—Sebring, Friday, September 23.

Fourth District—Elizabethtown Thursday, September 22.

Ninth District—Salt Lick, Bath county, Wednesday, September 28.

Tenth District—Stanton, Powell county, Tuesday, September 27.

The conventions will meet at about 10 a. m. At 2 o'clock there will be speaking by Hon. Milford W. Howard, the brilliant populist ex-congressman from Alabama, who is one of the greatest orators ever heard in Kentucky.

Come and bring your friends and help us put up a candidate to stand for Jeffersonian democracy.

BY ORDER OF THE STATE COMMITTEE.

The populists in the First district have put out a candidate for congress.

One of the most powerful arguments the pops now have in the campaign is the voluntary admission of the democrats that the tobacco trust is for Parker and Davis.

Populist orators are taking democratic papers containing the admission all over the tobacco raising counties, and thus are diverting from the democratic ticket hundreds of votes every day.

THE LUMBERMEN

QUESTION OF TIME FROM WHICH CAR SERVICE SHALL ACCRUE.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 22.—Victory for the lumbermen of Louisville in their fight for concessions from the car service association is the effect of an opinion handed down by the railroad commission. The most important decision was on the question of the time from which car service shall accrue. After a lengthy exposition of the law in various states and the findings of a number of state supreme courts in which the same questions had been adjudicated, the commission ruled that the hour from which free time shall count shall be either 7 o'clock of the day following placement or noon of the day of placement, provided due notice of such placement is given the receiver or consignee of freight.

The other important point covered in the opinion is the suggestion of a fixed time from which shall constitute legal notice and shall be sent to receivers of cars through the mails, bearing such information as is needful to the person addressed.

The ruling will become, in effect, a statute, and violations will be punishable by a fine of from $500 to $5,000. The counsel for the car service association will make no statement as to the prospective course to be pursued. The decision, however, probably will be attacked on the ground of no jurisdiction, and the case probably will be fought through the court of appeals.

LOST A $10 BILL.

Mrs. William Little, wife of the car repairer, lost $10 yesterday afternoon. She had the money in a large hand satchel pocket book and in taking out her handkerchief thinks she carried with it the bill, which fell unnoticed.

After a woman has told one-third of a story a man can guess the rest.

THE NEW BISHOP IS REV. DR. LLOYD

New York Man Chosen to Succeed
Bishop Dudley.

A Large Representation Was at the Diocesan Council Held in Louisville.

REV. WRIGHT COULDN'T VOTE

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 22.—The Rev. Dr. Arthur S. Lloyd, New York, was elected Episcopal Bishop of Kentucky to succeed the late Bishop Thomas Underwood Dudley, late yesterday afternoon.

Dr. Lloyd was placed in nomination by the Rev. Dr. James G. Minnigerode, rector of Calvary church. Dr. Minnigerode spoke in beautiful terms of the minister whom he deemed best fitted to serve as bishop of this diocese. He said that he had given the matter much thought, and after careful consideration he considered Dr. Lloyd the man for the place. Mr. William A. Robinson, of St. Andrew's church, seconded the nomination, and the Rev. Dr. J. K. Mason, of St. Andrews, paid a glowing tribute to Dr. Lloyd.

Before the nominations were made the Rev. Minnigerode, who presided over the council, asked that all present indulge in silent prayer for Divine guidance in their selection.

The diocese was well represented at the council. The following members of the clergy were in attendance: Charles P. Rodefer, Russellville; L. W. Rose, Henderson; James Kirkpatrick, Pewee Valley; W. K. Marshall, Owensboro; C. L. Pindar, Anchorage; G. C. Abbit, Hopkinsville; and D. C. Wright, Paducah. The following laymen were present: R. W. Covington, Bowling Green; H. Z. Churchill, Elizabethtown; E. A. Jones, Henderson; Hunter Wood, Sr., Hickman; J. V. Fifeher, H. S. Gray and S. P. Copeland, Hopkinsville; J. Muscoe Burnett, Paducah, and C. B. Robinson, Anchorage.

A heated discussion came up regarding allowing Dr. D. C. Wright of Paducah, a vote. Dr. Wright was formerly in charge of a church in New Albany, having moved to Paducah just a few weeks ago. It was decided by a vote of 11 to 6 that he should not be allowed a vote.

The meeting of the council was called by the standing committee of the diocese after the Rev. Dr. William G. Murray, of Baltimore, was selected at Hopkinsville several months and declined to accept the bishopric.

Dr. Lloyd received two votes at the last council, the Rev. Dr. J. D. Minnigerode placing him in nomination and voting for him. Dr. John K. Mason also voted for Dr. Lloyd.

The Rev. Dr. Lloyd was born in Virginia forty-eight years ago. After a missionary service of five years, he was chosen rector of St. Luke's church in Norfolk, Va. He is at present general secretary of the board of missions of the Episcopal church, with headquarters in New York. This position is one of the most important in the whole church. Dr. Lloyd is married and has four children.

Prof. John Dean, the well known band master, is the authority for the statement that Paducah is the best show town in the United States for her size. "In my younger days," Prof. Dean stated, "I toured the country with several show companies and am in a position to know about Paducah and her show patronage. I give you my word I never saw a town in my life that patronized the theater so well and regularly as Paducah and just give the people the means and they would keep a show going every night the season through. For a while in years gone by the shows brought to Paducah were not up to the standard, but of late we have been getting the very best attractions and when we know what we are getting, the theater is well filled when the show night comes around. Paducah residents will patronize anything good in the show line and there was as much wealth in Paducah as there is willingness to patronize the theater, the show business would be a gold mine for somebody."

Another well known gentleman, a street car official, also stated that he thought Paducah people were sticklers when it came to baseball and shows. "Just give the people money and turn them loose and I bet the theater would be packed."

Now that baseball is to be hurried for the winter, the youngsters are taking to football and there is talk of organizing a football team.

The high school pupils are preparing to organize, one enthusiast wants to organize a regular challenge team to play small college teams. The material cannot all be secured from the high school alone, it is true, but he intends to pick from outsiders and get a good team. Football has been increasing in interest among the local players for the past two years and it is likely a team will be organized here which will make a reputation for the city.

Music, which has seemingly depreciated in interest to the public during the past several years, is becoming popular again, as evidenced by the attendance throughout the summer to the Dean band tree open air concerts on Saturday nights on lower Broadway and the Dean band concerts at Wallace park on Sunday afternoons.

For years Paducah supported one of the finest amateur bands in the country, but after it disbanded and some of the members went out on the road, the band business went on the wane. During the summer it seems to have gained in popularity and next summer Paducah will likely have another big band of 25 or 30 members. A move is now on foot to organize such a band and rehearse it constantly through the winter months and be ready with a fine repertoire of music for the summer.

Bicyclists can not be too careful in riding where there is danger of striking anyone. In the railroad yards here recently a young man was riding his wheel and went to pass a laborer who was walking with his knife open, his hand holding the knife dangling at his side. The rider wanted to ride around the laborer who was not aware of his approach. As the bicyclist attempted to veer around, the laborer cocked his elbow and the bicyclist's wheel struck the laborer's arm and into the flesh the blade was jammed. This is one of the few accidents which happen when least expected.

A woman never enjoys telling secrets to another woman who has a reputation for keeping them.

TOBACCO OUTLOOK GOOD IN KENTUCKY

Cutting Has Progressed Quite Well in Most Places.

The Curing Has Been Very Satisfactory Except in a Few Cases.

THE NEWS BY COUNTIES

The following report of the 1904 tobacco crop condition is taken from the last issue of the Western Tobacco Journal:

Tobacco cutting has progressed well, the weather being favorable. There has been some complaint of tobacco burning in barns, but it is generally curing well. The late fields have been injured to quite an extent by drought and the outlook is not quite so favorable.

Hopkinsville—The crop is about one-half cut and housed. Cold weather near the end of the week will put the balance of the crop in house soon. Estimate now 50 to 60 per cent.

Paducah—The weather has been favorable for cutting and housing the new crop. We think fully 80 per cent. is now in the house and reports say it is curing good colors, mostly brown.

Delaware, Daviess Co.—Tobacco cutting has begun here and will continue slowly until the crop is housed. The crop is very inferior—not more than a half crop in quantity and far below the usual standard in quality.

Caldwell—Tobacco being cut in fine condition, a short crop. Calhoun—Tobacco being housed, small acreage but crop fairly good. Lyon—We have had good rains; tobacco has improved; fine crop of tobacco, some of it will be a little short, but the heavy dew we are having will make it of good quality. Marshall—Week has been dry and warm; most of the tobacco was housed this week; acreage short, but quality good. Todd—Tobacco cutting in progress, the acreage is small, but quality good, no worms to damage.

BRIDGE WORK

IS PROGRESSING WELL, ACCORDING TO MR. McCOURT.

Mr. H. McCourt, assistant general manager of southern lines of the Illinois Central, arrived last night from the east end of the division after an inspection of improvements on the Louisville division.

Mr. McCourt stated that the excavations on the Tennessee bridge were progressing nicely and nearly finished. The actual work of building the bridge will begin shortly and it is expected the bridge will be ready for service by the first of the year.

The Illinois Central makes all improvements and this bridge is one which will out of a little in time and route and the road is entering the work rushed through as quickly as possible.

Read, Cisco, Texas, writes, March 11th, 1901: "My wrist was sprained so badly by a fall that it was useless; and after using several remedies that failed to give relief, used Ballard's Snow Liniment, and was cured. I earnestly recommend it to any one suffering from sprains." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Duffels, Kolb & Co.

NAMING THE HOSPITAL.

Alderman Singleton announces that this evening at the regular board meeting he will ask for the appointment of a committee to select a name for the city hospital. It is to be composed of the mayor, presidents of the two boards and chairman of the hospital committee, and of four doctors. Many names have been suggested, but none seems to be favored more than the others, thus far.

ONE INDICTMENT FOR SUNDAY BALL

President Gus Thompson and Manager Ray Indicted.

The Grand Jury finished its Work in Fifteen Days at This Term of Court.

IS NOT A PLEASANT JOB

The grand jury in its final report yesterday afternoon returned an indictment against Mr. A. S. Thompson, superintendent of the Street Railway and John S. Ray, late manager of the Paducah Baseball club, for alleged violation of the Sabbath by playing or allowing to be played, Sunday baseball.

The grand jury had a number of witnesses in the case but none of them was able to furnish any evidence, it seems.

The three witnesses on the indictment are newspaper reporters, at least one of whom was not even before the grand jury.

Another one stated when before the jury and asked if Mr. Thompson was president of the association and Mr. Ray was manager of the Paducah club, that he knew nothing about what positions they held, except what he heard on the streets and saw in the papers. It seems that it was on this sort of evidence that the indictment was returned.

One member of the grand jury today said that he had as much grand jury as he wanted. It was his first service, and he declared it was the "stinkiest job" he ever tackled. He said that some people came up voluntarily and wanted to tell everything they knew or had ever heard, while you had to send a squad of deputy sheriffs for others, and then they didn't know anything.

"We tried to make out a case against one man, Tom Higger, charged with stealing whiskey," he said, "but we couldn't get the evidence to save our lives. Finally we sent over to the jail after the defendant himself, and he as good as confessed to us, but of course we couldn't base an indictment on that and we had to tell him he could go. He was so delighted he ran round and shook hands with us."

"There was another case that was probably unusual. Complaint had been made relative to a dead horse being allowed to lay and rot in a certain place. We put off action for two weeks and a half, not desiring to indict the man if he would waive the nuisance, but he ignored requests to move it. Finally we actually sent him a note—probably a consideration for a few grand juries ever showed a lawbreaker—and he actually sent it back to us, refusing to take it. We then returned an indictment, and planned the note we had sent him to it, to show the court that there was one man who had had a good chance to do right, and avoid prosecution."

"About the funniest thing that came up, however, was the testimony of a colored witness in a whiskey case. He had a small straw hat that just fitted the top of his head."

"Did you ever drink any of this black whiskey?" he was asked.

"Yesah, I sho' did, he replied.

"Will it make you drunk?"

"Sho', boss. It'll mek me ah eny 'nless drunk, nighah ah white man. It'll mek him mongry drunk, to tell de tnf. Yessah, I ah drunk sam ob dat whiskey."

"Well what is it called?" he was asked.

"Hit's gen'ly knowed es Cla's Ribbah Bu'bun. It's dah wild de goods, too, genmen."

"His description of how it made him feel was as funny as a comedy."

The grand jury finished its work this term in fifteen days. It generally stays in session until the criminal term of court adjourns, three weeks.

The court is now well up with its docket, and from now on there will be no rush when circuit court meets, thanks to Judge Reed's energy.

Messrs. Thompson and Ray have not been arrested nor required to give bond on the indictment. The trial of the case cannot come up until December and a compromise will probably be made then.

CIRCUIT COURT.

A judgment for $369 was filed in the case of the American-German National Bank against R. J. Caldwell and R. E. Parish.

R. T. Nolan was granted a divorce from his wife, Lena B. Nolan.

Lee Townsend, colored, charged with malicious cutting, was dismissed by the grand jury.

BANKRUPTCY PETITION.

William Thomas Keeling, of Colvert City, Ky., this morning filed a petition in bankruptcy giving liabilities to the amount of $430, no assets. Keeling owes several different persons and firms and the only creditor firm given in the list of creditors is the firm of Powell-Rogers, an implement company, for $12.50, a note given for merchandise purchase.

LICENSED TO WED.

Walter Ferguson, colored, age 19, and Mary Stewart, age 18, both of Paducah, have been licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of both. Charles J. Thonander, of the city, age 21, and May Denton, of the city, age 19, have been licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of both. S. H. Pryor, of the city, age 23, and Rosa Lee, of the city, have been licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of both.

HELD AND GAVE BOND.

Peter Bowers, of Columbus, Ky., who was arrested and brought here last night by Deputy United States Marshal George Saunders, was this morning held over by Commissioner W. A. Gardner to the federal grand jury for bootlegging and gave a $300 bond for his appearance.

NEW TOILET COMPANY.

"The Paducah Toilet Company" has filed articles of incorporation. The incorporators are Miss Eleanor Trezvant, W. F. Bradshaw, Jr., and W. F. Paxton. The former takes 114 shares of stock while the two others take three each. The company incorporates with a capital of $1,200. The officers have not been elected. The concern will do a general laundry business.

WILL DISSOLVE IT.

In regard to the county school middle in which W. E. Downing and others brought suit against County School Superintendent Bagdale to enjoin him from appointing other trustees in their place in District No. 25, Circuit Judge Reed announced before adjourning court yesterday that he would dissolve the temporary injunction, but would defer final settlement of the question until his return from St. Louis next week.

TO ACT AS SPECIAL JUDGE.

Circuit Judge W. M. Reed will probably not return from St. Louis until Wednesday and Attorney Campbell Flinnoy will go to Benton Monday to act as special judge of the Marshall circuit court until Judge Reed gets back.

GRAND JURY'S FINAL REPORT.

The grand jury before adjourning finally, yesterday reported fourteen indictments against persons not in custody. They also reported the jail in excellent condition, and dismissed the charge of malicious assault against Arthur Donn, who threw a brick while returning from a ball game sometime ago and hit Ed Long, an innocent bystander, in the face. The grand jury left for the next grand jury the charge of criminal assault against Jimkeman A. C. Browner, of the Illinois Central, as the witnesses could not be secured.

POLICE COURT.

Adam Welkert and C. M. Roper were arraigned for a breach of the peace before Police Judge Sanders this morning and Welkert fined $1 and costs.

It seems that Welkert, under the impression that Roper had insulted a young lady friend, slapped him in the face. Both are well known young men.

Wiley Taylor, colored, was fined $25 and costs and given 30 days in jail for carrying a concealed weapon and took an appeal.

Isaac Taylor, Hester and Mary Crutchfield, who started a disturbance in a saloon at Tenth and Caldwell streets, were fined $1 and costs each. Another breach of peace charge against Taylor was dismissed. They are colored.

The petty larceny charge against Joe Potter, who formerly worked about the city hall, was continued.

BACK FROM HOPKINSVILLE.

Officers Aaron Hurley and Scott Ferguson, who took Don Donn and Osborne Travis, the former a white blot and the latter a colored lunatic, to the Hopkinsville asylum yesterday, returned today.

Mr. John J. Blech, Sr., and son, John left today for St. Louis, where the latter enters the watchmaker's college.

Sears' Electric Rat and Roach Paste is sure death. It is easy to use and absolutely guaranteed to kill cockroaches, water bugs, rats, mice, etc., driving them out of the house to die. ## GOOD SPIRITS.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the blue grass state could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred and one ill effects it produces. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. ## USEFUL LIFE

Death Closes the Eyes of Col. Sam Piles at Smithland.

Was 80 Years Old and Lived at Smithland For Many Years.

A death that will cause widespread regret in Paducah and Southwest Kentucky is that last night at 8:30 o'clock at Smithland, Ky., of Colonel Samuel H. Piles, aged 81.

Colonel Piles had for the past several years been living in Paducah, but two months ago went to Smithland for his health. He succumbed to the infirmities of old age, being past the allotted three score and ten, yet Colonel Piles had always seemed to enjoy good health for a man of his age until a short time ago.

The deceased was born in Daviess county, Kentucky, and went to Smithland, Livingston county, when very young. He was a merchant and politician of popularity and prominence for years, and for many terms was sheriff of Livingston county. He later took up the practice of law, and still later became a traveling salesman.

Twenty years ago he moved to Paducah, and resided on North Eighth street. He had been a candidate for minor offices, but lived a retired life principally, devoted to his family and friends.

Two months ago he moved back to Smithland, and died at the Webb House last evening.

The deceased had been married three times, his first wife being an aunt of Judge D. L. Sanders, his second wife a sister of Rev. Dr. Bigham, and his third and present wife a sister of Mrs. J. K. Greer, of Paducah.

Three sons survive, and two daughters, Messrs. Samuel, Matthew and Hugh Piles, Miss Ruby Piles, and Mrs. Judge Winn, all except Mr. Hugh Piles and Mrs. Winn, residing at Seattle, Wash. Mr. Hugh Piles resides at Fulton, Ky., and Mrs. Winn in Alaska.

Mon. Samuel Piles is a lawyer of wealth and influence in the west, and will no doubt be the next United States senator from his district. Mr. Matt Piles was in the commission business here until two years ago, and Miss Ruby Piles resided here until about a year ago.

Colonel Piles was popular with all who knew him, and studied law under Judge W. D. Greer, of Paducah. His death will prove a great shock to his many friends in Kentucky.

No funeral arrangements have yet been made, and will not be until his children are heard from. If there is any way for them to get here in time the funeral will be postponed until they get here.

UNPARALLELED DEATH.

Young Hebrew Girl Falls a Tombstone Over Her After Praying At Sister's Grave.

New York.—Death came to a beautiful young Hebrew girl in Washington cemetery, Brooklyn, in a manner probably unparalleled. Rising from the grave of her twin sister, where she had been praying, the heavy tombstone fell upon her, killing her instantly.

Three rabbis, to each of whom she had paid 50 cents to pray over the grave, were standing by her when the strange accident occurred. The prayers that were offered by the rabbis did not appease the young woman's grief, and when they had finished she fell sobbing and praying on the mound.

Her prayer finished, she started to rise to her feet, and as she did so she clutched at the tombstone for support. It crumbled at its base and she was caught beneath it. Her body lay pinioned under the stone until a tramp, who had been begging among those in the cemetery, ran to the spot and rolled the heavy weight from the lifeless form.

Two men, the builders of the monument, were arrested and locked in the Parkville police station, as being responsible for her death by improperly setting the stone. The girl was identified some time after her death as Yetta Berkowitz, 18 years old, of Chrystie street, Manhattan.

DEMOCRATIC CONSISTENCY.

We are unalterably opposed to monometallism, which has locked fast the prosperity of an industrial people in the paralysis of hard times. We demand the free and unlimited coinage of both silver and gold at the present legal ratio of sixteen to one, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation.—From the platform adopted by the Democratic party in 1896 at Chicago and reaffirmed in 1900 at Kansas City.

SHAFER MURDER

Chicago Detective Went to School to Get Clue.

Murdered Girl's Schoolmate Will Go to New York After This Year.

Bedford, Ind., 22.—In a letter to a friend Miss Eva Love says that this will be her last year in the Bedford public schools. Miss Love was the roommate and intimate friend of Miss Sarah Schaefer, the Latin teacher, who was mysteriously murdered here this spring. The mystery of the crime has never been solved.

Miss Love next year will go to New York, where she will take a course in education. Miss Love is said to have great talents as an educationist and she expects to make this her future work. During the coming winter she will conduct a class in education in this city. During the summer Miss Love has been attending normal school at Valparaiso.

From her letter it appears that detectives have not yet abandoned their efforts to determine whether she has any suspicions regarding the murder of Miss Schaefer which she has not revealed.

In her letter Miss Love says that on the same day she entered the college at Valparaiso, a young man entered the school, pretending to be a school teacher. He sought Miss Love's acquaintance and secured it and spent a great deal of his time in her company. Miss Love believed that he was a detective. When she confronted him with her suspicions just before she left Valparaiso he confessed that he was a Chicago detective who had been seeking her acquaintance in the hope of getting some clue to Miss Schaefer's life and friendships which would aid him in solving the mystery and claiming the $5,000 reward.

Miss Love has paid a long visit to the parents of Miss Schaefer at their home in Elkhart. She says that they are firmly convinced that James McDonald, the Bedford suspect, who was tried for the murder and acquitted, should have been sentenced.

SHOT AT HOBOES

THEY CAUSE THE RAILROAD COMPANY MUCH TROUBLE.

Officer Tom Murray, of the Illinois Central detective force, shot several times this morning at fleeing hobo who were stealing rides on the blind baggage of both trains, No. 103 and 104. They ran and he fired to scare them.

The I. C. police are working to stop this habit of blind baggage riding. The company has lost a great deal in damages from worthless hobo stealing a ride and getting hurt and then bringing damage suits, and the police are making strenuous efforts to stop it.

A great deal of riding is done south of Paducah and during the summer as many as three and four hobo can be seen riding the blind baggage of every night train.

PLASTERING FELL

NARROW ESCAPE OF MRS. HERMANN KATTERJOHN.

Mrs. Hermann Katterjohn and baby had a narrow escape from serious injury last night in a very peculiar accident.

Mrs. Katterjohn was in bed when over a square yard of plastering fell from overhead and struck the side of the bed. The biggest portion of the plastering struck the floor and made a tremendous noise.

Mr. Katterjohn was in the next room and hearing his wife scream ran in to see what the trouble was. He turned on the light and soon learned. The plastering was very heavy and had it struck either the mother or child would probably have caused serious or possibly fatal injury. The plastering was loosened by the sleet storm several winters ago.

THE UNDERTAKERS LAUGH AT THE JOKE

County Judge's Charge of "Trust" Answered by Them.

They Do Not Want the Pauper Business at All They Declare.

ALL EXPLAIN THEIR POSITION

The local undertakers smile at County Judge Lightfoot's charges against them of forming a "trust." They declare that they are ready for any kind of an investigation, and are not afraid of grand juries. If the city and county, they say, will not trouble them with pauper cases, they will consider it a favor. They do not desire to bury paupers at any price.

"The facts about the business are," explained one of the undertakers today, "that we don't want these pauper cases. The city and county have been paying us $5.50 for burying paupers. This is, when they ordered them buried at all. Here lately it has been almost impossible to get paupers buried in this county, because neither the mayor nor the county judge would give orders for so doing. They let bodies on several occasions lay and rot for several days at a time, each claiming that it was the other's duty to pay the $5.50.

"The difference between burying paupers and burying anyone else is simply that in burying a pauper we furnish the coffin, the box, go after the corpse in many cases and haul it to our shop, and then haul the box to the grave yard, furnish the hearse and horses and men, whose time is worth something, pay for digging the grave, and then carry the body out and bury it, all for $5.50. It is a fact capable of demonstration that it actually costs us several dollars more than we have been getting. We are willing to bury paupers for $10, because somebody must bury them, but not for less. None of us wants the jobs even at that. Most people, including the county judge, would probably not even handle the average pauper corpse for $10, much less haul it sometimes from the hospital or poor house to the undertaker's, prepare it for burial, put it in a coffin, haul it to the graveyard and pay for digging the grave. They would not even go into the same room with one for $10, after it has lain three and four days in the hottest of weather, because they refused to furnish the money to bury it, as we undertakers have had to do. Yet we had to do the whole thing for $5.50.

"We formed no trust. Please say that none of us want these pauper jobs at any price. If we take them at all we will take them at $10 each. Neither the county nor the city has to give us the work, for we don't care for it."

The undertakers laugh at the story of how one man secured a coffin for less than $8. After the undertakers notified the county that they would bury no more paupers for less than $10, a man wanted the county to bury his child. The undertakers wouldn't do it for less than $10. The man rang up the undertaker and found that he could get a coffin for $8. This was $2 cheaper than paying $10, so the county furnished $8 to the man. He went down and paid for the coffin. The undertaker got the $8 and furnished the hearse, a carriage, pay for digging the grave, or haul the body anywhere. He got $8 for the coffin, whereas the other way he would have had to do the whole thing for $10. He says that he would much rather have had it as it was, and that if any one got skinned, he wasn't the one.

The undertakers only recently adopted their new rule. They have never wanted the pauper business, and recently figured out where it actually cost them seven or eight dollars to bury paupers, although they got only $5.50 for it, not counting what the time of their men, horses and other equipment was worth.

They all say that if anyone wants the pauper business at either $5.50 or $10, he is welcome to it, for they don't want it at all.

Undertaker M. Nance, who has been in business here for many years, stated today that there wasn't and never was any profit in the pauper business. He said about the only person who could make money at the present price paid would be some hammer-and-saw carpenter.

A HARD TASK

IT WILL BE TO TELL THIS BOY HE IS AN ORPHAN.

Minneapolis, Minn., September 22.—The sleep of August Moy, aged 10, ended at St. Bernadine's Hospital today. The duration of the slumber was thirty days and fifteen hours. On the night of August 20 the cyclone which swept over the Twin Cities demolished the Moy home. The father, mother and baby sister of the boy were killed outright. August sustained a fractured skull and has been unconscious since. Today the nurse found him sitting up in bed, rubbing his eyes and calling for his mother. There is a hard task ahead for somebody at the hospital.

OLD TOMBSTONES.

Unearthed in Vienna and Bear Ancient Jewish Inscriptions.

Vienna.—A most interesting discovery has been made in Jewish grave-stones, in the foundations of the Hofburg, the emperor's Vienna residence.

Certain alterations are being made in the great imperial kitchens, which are below the chapel, and the grave-stones had been utilized in building the walls. They are 21 in number, and as far as it has been possible to judge, from the Hebrew inscriptions they bear, must be at least 800 years old.

Some refer to women—for instance, Zipora, the wife of the Rabbi David. Obviously part of the building must rest on an ancient Jewish cemetery. The stones will be set up in the imperial library.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Hon. J. C. Speight, of Graves county

DAILY THOUGHT.

Form a habit of thinking out, before going to bed at night, all the cares and anxiety of the day—everything which can possibly cause mental wear and tear or deprive you of rest.

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy and warmer tonight.

Probably rain Friday.

THEIR USUAL BLUNDER.

The democratic machine in Kentucky,

by announcing that it would have attorneys to represent the democrats at the hearing in the court of appeals of the registration certificate law, gave the whole snap away. The law is partisan and was enacted for the purpose of enabling the democrats to steal elections.

In Paducah we have pretty fair elections, but other Kentucky cities are not so fortunate, and many democratic outrages are reported in Louisville, Covington and Lexington during elections, as well as in other places, where democratic audacity and unscrupulousness are more pronounced than they are here. It is in these places, principally, where the registration certificate, with a relay of re-peaters, would be used to advantage.

The Henderson tiler evidently recognizes the blunder made by the democrats in announcing that they would make a fight to preserve this new registration law, and hastens to advise:

"We very much doubt the propriety of the course suggested by the above. Our election and registration laws ought to be non-partisan. If it be true the republicans are trying to make them appear partisan, as suggestive, surely the court of appeals may be relied upon to disregard politics and decide the case on its merits. We should think it very embarrassing to the court of appeals to admit outside parties to be heard in the case. To do so for the reasons suggested would be to give the case a partisan character. Any decision that might be rendered would be heralded as a democratic or a republican victory by the court of appeals. It is to be hoped these parties will not ask to be heard and if they do ask we hope the court of appeals will refuse the request. It is to be hoped the court will decide the case on its merits without a tinge of political bias.

This much the court owes to the people and to themselves. To do otherwise would lower the court in the estimation of all right-thinking men."

Hundreds of people in Paducah and in other cities of the K. I. T. league have greatly enjoyed baseball this season,

and it is to be hoped that their pleasure is not to be marred by any post-season squabble. If the league members engage in any disgraceful row among themselves, it will endanger the chance of having a successful league next year.

The average person does not care whether one faction or the other carries its point, or where the final meeting is held. All the fans want is that the thing be wound up in a fair, genteel manner and the championship be awarded to the club that is entitled to it. The secretary of the league is the only man who has the records of all the games, and consequently the only man in a position to say who has won the pennant on the face of the returns, and consequently he is the final meeting shall be held.

If he says Cairo, owing to the authority invested in him and the fact that he has the rest of the league "where the wool is short," it will apparently be better to go ahead and meet at Cairo, and settle all questions that are in controversy there. If the secretary's records do not sustain his claims, the other members of the association can right everything in a short time. On the other hand, if there is any revolt and the meeting is held here instead, the settlement of the business of the league may be postponed indefinitely. The thing to do is to get together, wind up the business of the league in an amiable, peaceful manner as possible, and then let the members of the league disperse with those officers they think they can best get along without. Before they can do anything however, it will be necessary to all meet together.

Judge Parker's latest play to the gallery was the letter asking that the democratic handbook contain nothing reflecting on the honor and integrity of President Roosevelt. The object of the letter is apparent from the necessity with which it is being exploited by the democratic organs throughout the country. As a matter of fact no one can reflect on the president's honor and integrity without the use of lies, for a better,

more courageous, upright, moral man cannot be found.

At length, after months of delay, the market house contract has actually been let. When arrangements have been made to sell the material in the old one,

when a temporary market house has been found and rented and in the course of time prepared for service, work on the new structure may be started. About that time bad weather will set in and there is no telling when the work will be finished. That's how they do things in Paducah.

The squabble among Louisville paocratic machine, which Col. Fry Woodson gave a good drubbing recently, will help him carry Kentucky for Parker and Davis, is uncalled for. The indifference and inactivity of the state democratic machine are due to the fact that there are no offices it is after this time.

The best way for the board of public

"We propose to show, gentlemen of the jury," said counsel for the defendant, "that it is impossible for the defendant to have committed this crime.

"In the first place, we will prove that the defendant was nowhere near the scene of the crime at the time the crime was committed.

"Next we will offer the indisputable testimony of persons who saw defendant on the spot, and who did not see the defendant commit the crime.

"We will show that no poison was found in the body of the deceased.

"Not only that, but we will prove that it was put there by the prosecu-

"We will furthermore show that the deceased committed suicide.

"And last, but not least, we will

Hearts Courageous

BY HALLIE ERMINE RIVES

This matchless romance of colonial days will be printed

IN OUR COLUMNS

Not only one of the best historical novels of the period of the American Revolution, but one of the most delightful love stories.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS

Chicago Inter-Ocean

The story of "Hearts Courageous" is laid largely in Virginia, but the action is in Philadelphia in 1776. And here Miss Rives applies another scenario. The plot hinges upon the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The conventional story of its signing, we are told, is not the real one. There was little smooth sailing about it. It had a desperate struggle for existence, thanks to a man of our good parents who have gone down into history with reverential regard. And it was finally saved from oblivion by a most dramatic occurrence on July 4th in Independence Hall—a scene which forms the climax of the plot.

Washington Post

But, pleasing as style is in the critic, the average reader demands something else, such as plot and atmosphere. There is an abundance of both.
The plot, which is a most clever one, details the adventures of a young nobleman who was sent by his father to ascertain the temper of the colonies, and to find out who held out offers of assistance in case of rebellion should be determined on.

Miss Rives has told us a story full of such charm, such life, such suspense and dramatic interest that it is a pity any writer of the historical rom-

ALLEGED FORGER

COLORED MAN ARRESTED ON THE CHARGE TODAY.

Eber Dunlap, colored, was arrested today shortly after noon by Officers Sam Brantley and Henry Singery on the charge of forgery. There will be three warrants finally issued against Dunlap but so far only one specific charge has been lodged.

Dunlap has been working at a local clothing store as porter and recently Andy Watkins, the undertaker, received a note and check from a small negro boy for $15. The check was signed by Ples Jennings, a prominent colored resident of the city. The money was given to the boy, the note saying that the sender who was supposed to be Jennings, wanted the check cashed.

Later another check was sent for $50 and Watkins became suspicious and wouldn't send that amount by the boy. He went in person to see Jennings and learned that the check had been forged. He reported the matter to the officers who worked the case up and arrested Dunlap. It is understood Dunlap passed indirectly another check on George Marshall, a barber, and still another on another colored resident. The police will thoroughly investigate all cases and it is said three warrants will follow with one for attempted forgery.

TO KEEP HOTEL

MESSRS. REED AND WILSON WILL RUN NEW CENTURY NEXT

Hon. Charles Reed returned last night from Paducah, Ky., where he held on business connected with the New Century Hotel, which Messrs. Reed and Wilson will operate. They have with them May 16 announce whether or not they will avail themselves of their option on the hotel for four years, and have decided to take the hotel, although it was thought this time last week that Mr. Reed might dispose of his interest.

The hotel has done well on the whole season. Mr. Price, a druggist of Dawson, will reside in the hotel this winter and it will remain open all the winter.

The regular season, however, will begin June 15th, next. Mr. L. D. Wilson, who has been running the hotel since it opened, will return to Paducah about October 1st and after that the hotel will be in charge of Mr. Price until Messrs. Reed and Wilson again take charge next spring.

STRUCK GIRLS

FAST TRAIN HIT SEVERAL DOWN NEAR NEW ORLEANS.

News was received here this morning of an accident at Amite, Miss., a short distance north of New Orleans on the Illinois Central road where a train struck a wagon load of girls.

The telegram was to an official and gave bare details. The girls were named Stevens and one was killed outright, another's skull crushed and another's leg broken, while the fourth had bad bruises. They tried to cross ahead of the train when struck.

Amite is a very small station and not a scheduled stop for the fast train.

REPAIRING RAILROAD SHOPS.

This morning bricklayers went to work repairing the hole in the south east wall of the local I. C. woodworking shops. The hole was knocked in the wall by a string of cars which got away from an engine and the wall was caved in from ground to roof for a distance larger than the breadth of a car.

ABILENA

Abilena is natural water. It holds in solution salts dissolved from natural deposits in the earth. It is Nature's cathartic compound—a natural mineral water. Mineral waters are recognized everywhere as the most efficient, as well as the least injurious, cathartics. Abilena is the best mineral water on the American market. It is the American Natural Cathartic. The discovery of Abilena was a simple revelation of nature. For a long time after the first well was dug, the water, being unfit for domestic purposes, was not used at all. Practical tests afterward disclosed its medicinal properties and the report of its virtue was rapidly disseminated. Finally several chemists analyzed the water and the results manifested its great therapeutic value and preindicated its future renown. Sold only by

Theatrical Notes

Richard Carle will appear in "The Tenderfoot" at The Kentucky on Tuesday, September 27, fresh from its successful runs in New York and Chicago. The now famous Texas comic opera has had a solo career of more than a year, having been in continuous service since April 12, 1903. The principal theme claim for "The Tenderfoot" is the novelty of its theme and background. Prof. Zachary Pettibone, of Vermont, played by Mr. Carle, is thrown among cowboys, ranchers and all the other rough and ready jokers of the southwestern border, while on a visit to his niece. The things that are supposed to happen to a "tenderfoot" supply the comedy situations. The main narrative is romantic and concerns the love affair of the professor's niece with the colonel of the Texas rangers. Seats go on sale Monday at 10 a. m. Prices 25 cents to $1.50.

A large and delighted audience last night witnessed "The Man From Mexico," played by the Frank Dudley Stock Company. It is a comedy that takes well everywhere, and as presented by this sterling company was never more enjoyed anywhere. Mr. Dudley is a young actor whose future is most promising. It will not be long, judging from his work here, until he is ranked among the stars of the profession. He is putting on some fine plays in the best possible manner, and has a company of exceptional merit. He carries everything with him except the furniture used in the plays and gives the best popular priced performance ever seen in Paducah. Tonight he will present Camille, and there is already every indication of a crowded house.

Mr. J. W. Canoly, business manager in advance of Fred G. Bergers, "Sign of the Cross" Company, is in the city today making arrangements for the presentation of this famous play at The Kentucky next Thursday, September 29. Mr. Canoly states that business has been of a gratifying volume this season and the local managers are all clamoring for return engagements. This will be the first appearance in the city of this magnificent drama, universally acknowledged as one of the greatest plays in the history of the stage. Consequently a rare treat is in store for the lovers of good drama. Walter Law, the eminent English actor, will be seen in the leading role as "Marcus Surtin," prefect of Rome, supported by an exceptionally strong company of English and American artists. The scenic equipment of this production is said to be something immense. The company carrying all special scenic and electrical effects. Considering the wealth of scenery and the general excellence of the cast the "Sign of the Cross" should be liberally patronized.

GENERAL CORBIN RECOMMENDS ITS RESTORATION.

Washington, September 22.—In his annual report, General Corbin says: "If it were possible by my act to absolutely stop the manufacture and use of intoxicating drinks of any kind, I would do so; if it were possible by my act to prevent the use by any person in the military service of intoxicating drinks, I would do so; but realizing that the impossible, however desirable, must give way to what is possible and practicable I am freely of the opinion that it would be in the interest of discipline to re-establish the canteen feature of the post exchange, recognizing that in this way the use of drink can be minimized."

NOT A LAW

NEW BEERINE ORDINANCE
KNOCKED OUT AT FULTON.

The new city ordinance gotten up by South Fulton law makers to force the sale of beerine out of the corporate limits, has been proven unconstitutional, in view of a previously existing act of like character, and an official of that town says that it now remains for the council to enforce the ordinance long on the statutes and he says that he is ready and willing to do his part, says the Fulton Commercial.

A bottling concern has written a strong letter to the mayor of South Fulton complaining of the had treatment his staff is receiving at the hands of South Fulton authorities and threatens to bring suits against the council collectively and individually, unless they permitted the sale of beerine in the corporation, claiming that beerine was only a soda water and not intoxicating.

South Fulton has abundance of evidence that the stuff is intoxicating and are anxious for the firm to be away. They are going to keep beerine out.

Her Leap Year Inspiration

By TROY ALLISON

Copyright, 1904, by K. M. Whitehead

Miss Sevier was worried. She sat at the front bedroom window impatiently tapping the arm of her wicker rocker with one hand and using a finger of the other to keep place in the book that hung the length of a listless arm on the other side of the chair.

The attitude of the two hands was a due index to her disposition. She was listless and bored by the monotony of her life, but there was a strong combative element in her nature that made it impossible for her to accept it with the placidity shown by the other women she knew.

She was tired of Texas. She had amused herself calculating just how many gallons she had drunk in the ten years of her social career. At twenty it had seemed highly exciting to put on her newest gown and drink tea with a crowd of people. She could even remember that the addition of a bunch of violets to her costume had at one time given a decided pleasure.

But at thirty she forgot to pin on the violets, even when there was a large stand that one Mr. Thomas Carter is the very neatest boy among your acquaintances, eh?"

"He's really nice and the very neatest," Esther answered, a red flush spreading to the roots of her fair hair. "May I, auntie, please?"

"If all the other girls are of the same opinion, perhaps you would be wise to get your note written at once," tensed her aunt.

The girl gave her an impulsive kiss and then looked at her with a twinkle in her eye.

"I would like awfully to write it on a sheet of your best paper," she coaxed. After her sixteen-year-old niece had disappeared, having taken some of the best paper and the sealing wax to match, Miss Sevier went back to the window and stood gazing abstractedly at the house across the street.

The house had been there for years, but she seemed to study it with intense interest.

"I know he loves me," she murmured, and she may or may not have referred to the groovy boy that was just then ringing the bell of the house opposite.

She went to her writing desk and cut a very creditable looking heart out of a piece of the best paper that had been the object of Esther's admiration.

Across the face of the heart she printed in delicate, scrawling letters, "To you it is a rose," then rang for her maid to get out her sweet dress and tell James to have the carriage at the door in twenty minutes.

When John Carrington reached home after a trying day in his downtown law office he found that his landlady had put a long letter in his bag on the window ledge where it would keep cool. He opened the bag with an expression of curiosity that the masculine countenance often wears when its owner is sure there is no one to see it. There was one long stemmed American Beauty and Carrington's sensitive face turned crimson when he saw that its stem was thrust through a hastily cut paper heart.

That night Miss Sevier's restless mood seemed to have passed away, and she showed an unusual amount of interest every time the doorbell rang.

When she had almost decided that it was too late to expect a caller Carrington walked into the room. He had let himself in without ringing and stood before her, still in his overcoat, his hat in his hand, in the lapel of his coat was the half blown American Beauty.

"Frances, I have never had the clock necessary to ask if you could care for so unsuccessful a lawyer as I have proved," he said slowly, "but I would like better than anything on earth to know that you sent me this rose."

She drew a paper from the folds of her dress and showed him the sheet from which the heart had been cut.

A second letter she handed her slender patriarch nose against the rough shoulder of his overcoat.

"I think it would be pleasant if you would hang this rough coat on the hall rack for an hour or so, John, I wish I had told you three years ago that I never had much regard for law."

Fleet Footed Zebra.

Sir Cornwallis Harris' description of the common zebra is as follows: "Seeking the wildest and most sequestered spots, haughty troops are excessively difficult to approach, as well on account of their extreme agility and fleetness of foot as from the abrupt and inaccessible nature of their highland abode. Under the special charge of a sentinel, so posted on some adjacent crag as to command a view of every avenue of approach, the checked herd whom painted skirts are to be viewed perambulating some rocky ledge on which the rifle ball alone can reach it."

"No sooner has the note of alarm been sounded by the veldt than, pricking their long ears, the whole flock hurry forward to ascertain the nature of the approaching danger, and, having gazed a moment at the advancing hunter, whisking their brindled tails aloft, helter skelter they thunder down craggy precipices and over yawning ravines where no less agile foot could dare to follow them."—Saturday Review.

A Scotch Priest's Beard.

Amid the highlands of Scotland many good Catholic priests of the mountains and islands have permission to protect their throats from the raw damp of the winters by beards, often of quite patriarchal dimensions. "I remember," says a writer, "a good old Scotch padre who was elected (much against his will) bishop of a highland see and went to Rome to receive episcopal consecration with his cheeks adorned with whiskers much more voluminous than the clerical head which custom or courtesy used to allow to all Catholic ecclesiastics. The cardinal prefect of propaganda, who was to perform the consecration ceremony, was horrified and insisted on the sacrifice of the whiskers before the consecration took place. The bishop stoutly submitted under protest. But he was to suffer lack in his highland fastness that the whiskers blossomed forth again."

Ancient Hot Machine.

It is worth while recording that the "penny in the slot" automatic machine was known in the time of Hero of Alexandria, who describes in his "Pneumatica" "a sacrificial vessel, which flows only when money is introduced. When the coin is dropped through the slot it falls on one end of a balanced horizontal lever, which, being depressed, opens a valve suspended from a chain at the other end, and the water begins to flow. When the lever has been depressed to a certain angle the coin falls off, and the valve, being weighted, returns to its seat and cuts off the supply. Hero's date is a little uncertain, but he is supposed to have lived B. C. 117-81.—Notes and Queries.

Moran of the Lady Letty

By
FRANK NORRIS.

Author of "The Octopus," "The Pit," "Etc."
Copyright, 1926, by
S. S. McClure Company

No one interrupted—no one even noticed his passage to the station. At best it was nothing more than a couple carrying a couple of gunny sacks across his shoulder. Two hours later Hanson was lost in San Francisco's Chinatown.

At the sight of the schooner sweeping out to sea Willbur was for an instant smitten right. What had happened? Where was Moran? Why was there nobody on board? A swift, sharp sense of some unnamed calamity leaped suddenly at his throat. Then he was aware of a clattering of hoofs along the road that led to the fort. Hodgson threw himself from one of the horses that were used in handling the surf boat and ran to him, hatless and panting.

"Look!" he shouted. "Look! Your schooner! Do you see her? She broke away after I'd started to tell you—to tell you to tell you—your girl there on board! It was horrible!"

"Is she all right?" cried Willbur at top voice, for the clamor of the gale was increasing every second.

"All right! No, they've killed her—somebody the cooies, I think—killed her! I went out to ask you people to come into the station to have supper with me!"

"Killed her? Killed her? Who? I don't believe you!"

"Well, to have supper with me, and I found her there on the cabin floor. She was still breathing. I carried her up on deck. There was nobody else aboard. I carried her up and laid her on the deck, and she died there. Just now I came after you to tell you, and—"

"But great heavens, man! Who killed her? Where is she? Did you know? Moran killed? Moran killed?"

"And the schooner broke away after I started!"

"Moran killed! That—that she's not dead yet! We'll have to see!"

"She died on the deck. I brought her up and laid her on—"

"How do you know she's dead? Where is she? Come on; we'll go right back to her—to the station!"

"She's on board—out there!"

"Where—where is she? Man, tell me where she is!"

"But there aboard the schooner. I brought her up on deck—left her on the schooner—on the deck—she was stabbed in the throat—and then came after you to tell you. Then the schooner broke away while I was coming. She's drifting out to sea now."

"Where is she? Where is she?"

"Who—the girl, the schooner—which one? The girl is on the schooner, and the schooner—that's her, right there—she's drifting out to sea."

Willbur put both hands to his temples, closing his eyes.

"I'll go back!" exclaimed Hodgson. "We'll have the surf boat out and get after her. We'll bring the body back!"

"No, no!" cried Willbur. "It's better this way. Leave her; let her go; she's going out to sea—out to sea again!"

"But the schooner won't live two hours outside in this weather. She'll go down."

"It's better—that way. Let her go. I want her."

"I can't stay; I can't stay here!" said the other. "There's a storm coming up, and I've got to be at my station."

Willbur did not answer. He was watching the schooner.

"I can't stay!" cried the other again. "If the patrol should signal—I can't stop here; I must be on duty. Come back; you can't do anything!"

"No!"

"I have got to go!" Hodgson ran back, swung himself on the horse and rode away at a furious gallop, inclining his head against the gale.

And the schooner in a world of flying spray, white acid and driving squalls, her cordage humming, her forecastle creaking, and then came straining stiff in the gale, came up into the narrow passage of the Hudson tide, riding high upon the outgoing tide. On she came, swinging from crest to crest of the waves that kept her company and that ran to meet the ocean, shouting and calling out beyond there under the low, scudding clouds.

Willbur had climbed to the top of the old fort. Eerie upon its granite ledge he stood and watched and waited.

Not once did the North Miller falter in her race. Like an unbidden horse, all restraint shaken off, she ran free toward the ocean as to her pasture land. She came nearer, nearer, rising and rolling with the seas, her bow-sprit held due west, pointing like a finger out to sea to the west—out to the world of romance. And then at last, as the little vessel drew opposite the old fort and passed not a hundred yards away, Willbur, watching from the rampart, saw Moran lying upon the deck with outstretched arms and calm, upturned face; lying upon the deck of that lonely fishing schooner as upon a bed of honor, still and calm, her great braids smooth upon her breast, her arms wide; alone with the sea—alone in death as she had been in life. She passed out of his life as she had come into it—alone upon a derelict ship abandoned to the sea. She went out with the tide out with the storm;

out, out, out to the great gray Pacific that knew her and loved her and that shouted and called for her and thundered in the joy of her as she came to meet him like a bride to meet a bridegroom.

"Goodby, Moran!" shouted Willbur as she passed. "Goodby, goodby, Moran! You were not for me—not for me! The ocean is calling for you, dear. Don't you hear him? Don't you hear him? Goodby, goodby, goodby!"

The schooner swept by, shot like an arrow through the swirling currents of the Golden Gate and dipped and bowed and courtesied to the Pacific that reached toward her his myriad curling fingers. They folded her, held her close and drew her swiftly, swiftly out to the great, heaving bosom, the mountains and heaving in its mighty joy, its savage exultation of possession.

Willbur stood watching. The little schooner lessened in the distance, became a shadow in mist and flying spray, a shadow moving upon the face of the great waste of water. Fainter and fainter she grew, vanished, reappeared, was heaved up again, a speck upon the western sky, a speck that dwindled and dwindled, then slowly melted away into the gray of the horizon.

Gypsies in Hungary.

The Hunan of Hungary knows naught of breach of promise affairs. In the relations and friends of the fitted maiden wait upon the husbandless lover, argue with him, plead with him. Then, if he still remains obstinate, he is punished by a shot in the leg or arm. By ancient Hungarian custom, too, the slightest girl has the right to be present and to decree in which of his limbs he shall be wounded. In practice, however, she usually elects to stay away, thereby leaving the fearful choice to him.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.

Pump cheeks, flushed with soft glow of health and a pure complexion, make all women beautiful. Take a small dose of Herbine after each meal; it will prevent constipation and help digest what you have eaten. 50c. Mrs. M. Stroud, Middletown, Texas, writes, May 31, 1901: "We have used Herbine in our family for thirty years, and found it the best medicine we ever used for constipation, bilious fever and malaria." Sold by Dulles, Kohl & Co.

It's often easier for a man to tell a woman he loves her than it is to explain matters after he gets sober.

A decided hit with busy business men—"Our Noon Day Lunch." It saves time, tastes good, there's the daintiest of dishes to select from. Coolest of drinks to go with it—and good cigars for a quiet smoke if you're a smoker. Try it today and tell your friends about it.

Henry Clay.

Henry Clay had the greatest personal following of any man who ever lived in America and died a disappointed man, because his following was not strong enough to make him president of the United States. All Kentuckians love him, and revere his memory. Read his great speeches in volume 2 of the Sun's premium to the people.

ABCESSSES.

W. H. Harrison, Cleveland, Miss., writes, Aug. 15, 1902: "I want to say a word of praise for Ballard's Snow Liniment. I stepped on a nail, which caused the cords in my leg to contract and an abscess to rise in my knee, and the doctor told me that I would have a stiff leg, so one day I went to J. F. Lord's drug store (who is now in Denver, Colo.) He recommended a bottle of Snow Liniment; I got a 50c size, and it cured my leg. It is the best liniment in the world. ABCESSSES, with few exceptions, are indicative of constipation or debility. They may, however, result from blows or from foreign bodies, introduced into the skin or flesh, such as splinters, thorns, etc. Sold by DuBois, Kolb & Co.
